

LEGACY STUDENT AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

Pictured: Devin Chiamonti '21.

Many will remember the energy, spirit and love of theater of Brother Christopher Kavanaugh, FSC who passed away in 2007. Br. Chris served as Principal at Montini Catholic from 1991 – 1997 and returned as a faculty member from 2003 – 2007. After his passing, the Brother Christopher Kavanaugh FSC Memorial Scholarship was established to recognize well-rounded Montini Catholic students who exemplify his great pride, spirit and enthusiasm for the Bronco experience.

This year senior Devin Chiamonti, son of Nick Chiamonti '84, has been awarded the Christopher Kavanaugh Memorial Scholarship.

Bronco Business Highlight

This week's highlighted Bronco Business is Len's Ace Hardware of Addison, Roselle, Glen Ellyn, Bloomingdale, Elmhurst, and Buffalo Grove owned and operated by Len Grimsley '85, and parent of Brooke '19 and Erin '24.

Len's Best Hardware in Addison was founded by Len and Mary Grimsley in 1959 and in 1962 Len Sr. changed affiliations to Ace Hardware and was the 426th Ace store to open. Today, Len's Ace Hardware is third generation owned and currently operated with lots of input from the 4th generation! Visit their web page to learn more about their services.

Future Broadcaster

Joe Spivak '17 is a member of the Northwestern Wildcats football team majoring in Communication Studies with minors in Business Institutions and Theatre.

Additionally, Joe is a member of the Northwestern Football Team and has served as a member of the Player Leadership Council, co-President of Up-lifting Athletes at NU, and an advisory board member of NU-4-Life.

He is interested in a career in broadcasting or entertainment and is an intern for ABC-7 Chicago. Recently ABC 7 highlighted Joe during the "photo day" for Northwestern football. Check out his appearance. Good luck to Joe and the Northwestern Wildcats in the season opener on Saturday, October 24th vs Maryland at Ryan Field. #wearemontini
